ATLAS MARKET SIGNALS

Partner capability statement

Personalised weekly commercial intelligence for UK B2B teams

Atlas Market Signals helps small and medium-sized businesses follow relevant buyers, sales opportunities and competitor changes through a short weekly brief.

What we deliver

A PDF and email tailored to the agreed services, markets and accounts. Selected findings carry source links, commercial context and suggested checks or next actions.

Who may benefit

Microsoft partners, specialist consultancies, facilities firms and other B2B suppliers with valuable contracts and limited internal research time.

A practical first step

Introduce a business for a free four-week pilot or discuss several client needs. We agree scope, data sharing and delivery terms for each engagement.
